KVH Media Group has an array of crew welfare services to help ensure the good morale and well-being of your seafarers.

- Use our licensed content to bring your seafarers the information and entertainment they need, and help your seafarers feel connected rather than isolated while at sea.
- Let us assist you in rewarding your crew members' hard work with great entertainment for quality off-duty time.
- Choose from our range of cost-effective services, designed to suit your budget irrespective of your satellite communications capability.
- Know you are with the trusted provider of correctly licensed content for the maritime industry. Our services have been continually supported by important maritime bodies, including P&I Clubs, Nautical Institute, InterManager, ISWAN, and Mission to Seafarers.

Commercial Copyright Compliance for Viewing Movies Onboard

It is essential that shipping companies only allow viewing of films onboard their ships that are fully compliant with media copyright laws. Viewing personal home-licensed DVDs onboard commercial vessels is illegal. KVH Media Group holds the commercial maritime rights for the viewing of movies at sea and we can advise you if you require further assistance, especially in view of the specific MLC-2006 requirement for shipping companies to provide suitably legal film and recreational media content onboard their ships.

NEW! KVH IP-MobileCast™
