

Bottled Water Dispensing System)

T-JET (Model. TW150P) designed for Home and Commercial appliances.

T-Jet is the quality water pump system to dispense water from purified water bottle.

This pump is very suitable for the locations where no tap water or home & office users who can't plumb or want to use portable water.

When a water bottle is connected to the pump, purified water is available for use with espresso machines, instant coffee machines, water dispensers, ice makers, instant noodle cookers, coffee or tea makers, movable sinks or any other application where bottled water is needed.

T-JET, Model TW150P is especially designed to work with appliances, which have no water tank such as semi-automatic espresso machines, ice makers, instant noodle cookers and movable sinks etc. (Including some automatic espresso machines, which have built-in water tank).

When T-JET is installed with a semi-automatic espresso machine or ice maker etc. having no water tank and the suction wand is inserted into the water bottle, the pump will run to deliver water to the water inlet of an appliance or to a water faucet.
